Methods of Maintaining Tax Compliance	1
• Consequences for non-compliance prescribed under the Act	2
Article 20 in The Constitution of India 1950	2
• Offences and prosecutions under Income-tax Act, 1961	3
General Guidelines	3
• CBDT guidelines instruct that where quantum additions or penalty have been deleted by the departmental appellate authorities, then steps must be taken to withdraw prosecution	3
• Examining of a case for prosecution does not necessarily mean filing of Prosecution complaint in the court	3
• Procedure for prosecution	4
• Income-tax Authorities have to file a complaint before the competent judicial authority.....	4
• Existence of other mode of recovery cannot act as a bar to the initiation of prosecution proceedings	4
• Who is liable to be prosecuted?	4
• Trial by court [Section 292]	4
• When public servant liable to be prosecuted?	5
• Offence can be compounded.....	5
• Is mens rea or culpable mental state or guilty intention necessary?	5
• If appeal is pending against assessment order, prosecution proceedings should not be launched.....	6
• Pendency of appeal before Tribunal – Stay of prosecution proceedings under the Income-tax Act, 1961 during the pendency of assessment proceedings before authorities was held to be justified	7
• Two types of proceedings could run simultaneously and that one need not wait for the other - institution of the criminal proceedings cannot in the circumstances also amount to an abuse of the process of the court.....	7
• Findings of the Tribunal would be binding on the Magistrate Court.....	7
• Old age 70 Years.....	8
• CBDT instruction No. 5051 of 1991 dated 07/02/1991 para 4 states	8

• Directors cannot be acquitted merely on ground that no separate notices were issued to them	46
• Sanction – Chief Commissioner – Late deposit of tax deducted at source - If sanctioning was held to be not as per requirement of law summons issued by the Court can be challenged.....	46
• Failure to pay to the credit of the Government tax deducted at source – Directors in charge, to show that offence occurred without their knowledge or due diligence was exercised by them to prevent commission of offence–Non-issuance of separate notices, does not absolve directors in charge–Order of lower courts acquitting directors is held to be erroneous - Benefit of probation granted to accused directors of assessee and levy of fine	47

• Failure to pay to the credit of the Government tax deducted at source- Non-Executive Chairman is not involved in day-to-day affairs of company - Managing Director admitting Liability and entering into negotiations with revenue - Prosecution of Non-Executive Chairman is held to be not valid	48
• No Prosecution if it is a Company assessee	48
• For launching prosecution against Director of company, Assessing Officer needs to issue notice under section 2(35) expressing intention to treat him as ‘principal officer’	49
• A company is not a natural person but legal or juristic person. That would not mean that it is not liable to prosecution under the Act.....	49

CHAPTER 12: WILFUL ATTEMPT TO EVADE TAX, PENALTY OR INTEREST ETC. [SECTION 276C]

❖ Text of Section 276C	56
The term “willful”	57
What is an “Attempt”?	57
The word ‘evade’	58
Evasion of tax	58
• Difference between sub-section (1) and sub-section (2) of section 276C ..	58
• Nature of offence [Section 276C(1)].....	58
• Important elements of section 276C(1)	58
• Cognizable/or Non-Cognizable.....	59
• Non-Bailable/Bailable	59
• Punishment.....	59
• Triable by.....	59
• Threshold for launching prosecution in respect of the offences for Wilful attempt to evade tax, etc.	59
• Approving Authority [Section 276C(1)]	60
• Nature of offence [Section 276C(2)].....	60
Elements of section 276C(2)	60
• Cognizable/or Non-Cognizable.....	61
• Non-Bailable/Bailable	61
• Punishment.....	61
• Triable by.....	61
• Approving Authority [Section 276C(2)]	61
• Where assessee entered into several share transactions and earned short-term capital gain of huge amount from it, however, he did not disclose such gain in its return of income and evaded payment of tax on same, impugned prosecution proceedings initiated against assessee under section 276C for concealment of income with a view to evade tax was justified and same was to be upheld	62
• Wilful attempt to evade tax - Delay in payment of tax which was paid subsequently – Criminal proceedings quashed [Section 276C(2)] ...	62
• Where in search conducted under section 132 department had seized relevant books of account, and as such, assessee could not file return of income on time, assessee had no wilful intention to evade tax and since it had paid entire tax amount, offence under section 276C(2) was not at all attracted.....	63
• Where assessee deposited/paid self-assessment tax dues belatedly after coercive steps were taken by department, there could not be an

- inference that there was wilful attempt on part of assessee under section 276C to evade payment of tax and, therefore, prosecution under section 276C was to be quashed63
- In terms of section 276C(1), compounding fee has to be computed on basis of 100 per cent of tax sought to be evaded by assessee and not amount of income sought to be evaded64
 - Prosecution launched in 2008 under sections 276C, 277 & 278B of the Income-tax Act, 1961 for alleged tax evasion in Assessment year 1994-95 deserves to be quashed because the assessee has paid the tax and the penalty & also taking into account the year in which the alleged offence was committed. The assessee has been paying income-tax regularly & has not been prosecuted for any false disclosure either earlier or thereafter. It would only be in the nature of harassment to the petitioners, and an abuse of the process of the Court, if this case is allowed to be continued. (Note: The Supreme Court has directed issue of notice on the Department's SLP).....64
 - There is one exception that the presumption in terms of Section 132(4A) is not applicable in cases of prosecution under Section 276C and 27765
 - Unless a finding is recorded by the assessing officer as to a wilful attempt to evade tax or filing false verification, the complaint filed by the Deputy Director is not maintainable65
 - Prosecution can be launched before Income Tax Assessment completion - Prosecution proceedings were separate and distinct from the assessment or re-assessment proceedings. There was no requirement under the Act that the assessment proceedings should be completed before launching prosecution. High Court refused to quash prosecution for the compounding of offense under Section 276C(1) of Income Tax Act.....66
 - Wilful attempt to evade tax - Non-technical offence - False statement in verification - Reduction of penalty by CIT(A) - Prosecution cannot proceed - Compounding of offences - Application for compounding to be considered by committee specified in circular - DGIT has no jurisdiction to reject the application.....67
 - Wilful attempt to evade tax – Concealment penalty is deleted – Quashing of prosecution is automatic – The High Court can exercise its inherent jurisdiction to quash the prosecution and not indulge in the empty formality of directing the assessee to approach the Trial Magistrate68
 - Wilful attempt to evade tax – Stay petition dismissed by Tribunal – Quantum appeal is pending–Launching of prosecution is held to be not justified – Prosecution was quashed and the assessee was discharged from the prosecution.....68
 - Wilful attempt to evade tax–None of the authorities gave clear finding

about evading tax wilfully–Minor lapse on the part of the assessee of not mentioning stock, undisclosed income in the facts of this case do not attract launch of prosecution - Prosecution proceedings were quashed	69
• Deposit of self-assessment tax belatedly - No inference can be drawn that there was wilful attempt to evade on part of assessee to evade payment of tax - Prosecution was quashed	69
• Wilful attempt to evade tax - Stay petition dismissed by Tribunal - Quantum appeal is pending–Launching of prosecution is held to be not justified - Prosecution was quashed and the assessee was discharged from the prosecution.....	70
• Wilful attempt to evade tax–Order of penalty was set aside on ground that there was no concealment of income - Prosecution was liable to be quashed	71
• Wilful attempt to evade tax – The burden of proving the absence of mens rea is upon the accused and such absence needs to be proved not only to the basic threshold of “preponderance of probability” but “beyond reasonable doubt”. In every prosecution case, the Court shall always presume culpable mental state and it is for the accused to prove the contrary beyond reasonable doubt. This presumption is a rebuttable one – Petition to quash the proceedings was dismissed	71
• Wilful attempt to evade tax – Depreciation on land – A claim in the return which is scrutinised by the auditors and the directors cannot be considered as a mere accounting mistake, hence order of the learned Magistrate is upheld	72
• Prosecution for bogus transaction - Wilful attempt to evade tax – Pendency of appeal before CIT(A)-Stay – Alleged bogus purchases– During pendency of stay the criminal prosecution should not be launched and, if it has been already launched, the same shall not be proceeded.....	72
• Wilful attempt to evade tax - False verification of statement in return— Error committed by clerk of CA - As the tax amount involved in the instant criminal appeal was meagre, and had been paid long ago, the CBDT Circular, dated 07.10.1992 squarely applied and, therefore, no proceedings should have been filed as amount was below Rs. 25,000. Hence, the Supreme Court quashed the criminal proceedings against the assessee.....	73
• Wilful attempt to evade tax – Search and seizure - Failure to pay self assessment tax - Issue of show cause was held to be justified– Petition to quash complaint was dismissed.....	74
• Wilful attempt to evade tax - False statement in verification - Assessee already undergoing sentence therefore only fine would remain.....	74

- Wilful attempt to evade tax - Assessee had not been exonerated by the Income-tax Department in the adjudication proceedings till date - Proceeding is allowed to continue74
- If the Appeal is admitted on substantial questions of law, there is no justification for the DCIT to threaten the assessee with prosecution. Even if such prosecution is launched, the same shall not proceed till the pendency of the Appeal75
- Willful attempt to evade tax – Notice under section 156 for recovering the tax need not be issued before launching prosecution–Existence of other modes of recovery cannot act as a bar to the initiation of prosecution proceedings.....75
- Wilful attempt to evade tax - When Concealment penalty is deleted on merits - Automatic cancellation of prosecution76
- Pendency of appeal before Tribunal – Criminal proceedings must be stayed where appellate proceedings are yet to be finalized - Stay of prosecution proceedings under the Income-tax Act, 1961 during the pendency of assessment proceedings before authorities was held to be justified76
- Failure to disclose the source of income, in contradistinction to the failure or refusal to disclose the corpus/income itself is not punishable under section 276C(1).....77
- Amount of tax sought to be evaded - Where there is reduction of loss, but the assessee is finally assessed at a loss figure, the motive to avoid tax during the year in question is completely missing and therefore, criminal proceedings under sections 276C(1), 277 and 278B would amount to abuse of the process of Court.....78
- Where assessment is under progress, the Court held that Return yet to be filed and the genuineness of the sale agreement is yet to be decided in regular assessment, criminal complaint alleging offence under section 276C would be premature and hence liable to be quashed78
- Pendency of appeal from assessment proceedings is no bar to maintenance of prosecution for offence under ss. 276C and 277.....79

• Failure to furnish return of income - Quantum appeal is pending - Petition to quash the proceedings before the magistrate court is dismissed	91
• No effect on prosecution under section 276CC by subsequent filing of Income Tax Return	91
• Deposit of self-assessment tax belatedly - No inference can be drawn that there was wilful attempt to evade on part of assessee to evade payment of tax - Prosecution was quashed	92
• Failure to furnish return would not come in way of criminal prosecution – Sanction – Commissioner empowered to suo moto initiate penalty even if assessing authority is Additional Commissioner–Return of income – Failure to furnish – Omission on part of the Assessing Officer to impose penalty by itself does not mean default is not wilful–Return of Income – Primary responsibility of furnishing return is of Managing Director – Directors also equally responsible for furnishing return.....	94
• Failure to furnish return of income–Superior authority can also sanction prosecution –Imposition of penalty under Section 271F by Assessing Officer not a prerequisite for sanctioning prosecution – MD and other directors equally responsible for non-filing of return and hence other directors are also at default	95
• When High Court has given direction to consider the application for compounding, pendency of appeal against conviction could no longer be a reason for refusing consideration for compounding of offence	95
• Failure to furnish return of income - Compounding of offences - First offence-Subsequent assessment year the return was not filed within prescribed time, offence for subsequent assessment year could not be compounded.....	95
• Where the assessee had already furnished all relevant details in reply to show cause notice under section 142(1), revenue cannot initiate criminal prosecution under section 279 against the assessee for non-compliance of said notice	96

- Return of income has many schedules are part of income referred to Section 139 of the Act - Offence under Section 50 of the Black money Act is made out only if, in the return of income under sub-section (1) or sub-section (4) or sub-section (5) of the Income-tax Act, there has been a wilful failure to disclose any information relating to foreign asset – On facts the asset was disclosed in Schedule FA and in the case of Karti Chidambaram , in the original return of income filed and other three cases in the revised return of income filed within due date ; sanctioning authority has come to an erroneous conclusion that the case deserves prosecution for non-disclosure of the details of the asset in the return of income filed under Section 139(1). Sanction order was set aside, offences under Section 50 is not made out consequently , complaints filed are quashed . However, contention of the assessee that the Principal Director of Income-tax is not an authority, jurisdiction/competence under Section 55 of the Black Money Act, to sanction prosecution or file a prosecution complaint for offences under Section 50 of the Black Money Act is not accepted.....283
