CHAPTER VII

MISCELLANEOUS

31. Protection of action taken in good faith

No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Central Government, the State Government, the Commission, the State Commission, or any Member thereof or any person acting under the direction either of the Central Government, State Government, Commission or the State Commission, in respect of anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of this Act or of any rules made thereunder or in respect of the publication by or under the authority of the Central Government, State Government, Commission, or the State Commission of any report or paper.

Notes on Clauses—This section makes provision so as to provide for protection of action taken in good faith by the Central Government, State Government, the Commission, the State

Commission or any Member thereof any person acting in pursuance of the direction given by the said authorities.

32. Chairperson, Members and other officers to be public servant

Every Member of the Commission, State Commission and every officer appointed in the Commission or the State Commission to exercise functions under this Act shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code (45 of 1860).

Notes on Clauses—This section provides that the Chairperson, Members and other officers of the Commission or State Commission shall be a public servant within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code.

33. Directions by Central Government

(1) In the discharge of its functions under this Act, the Commission shall be guided by such directions on questions of policy relating to national purposes, as may be given to it by the Central Government.

(2) If any dispute arises between the Central Government and the Commission as to whether a question is or is not a question of policy relating to national purposes, the decision of the Central Government thereon shall be final.

Notes on Clauses—This section empowers the Central Government to issue directions to the Commission on question of policy relating to national purpose.

34. Returns or information

The Commission shall furnish to the Central Government such returns or other information with respect to its activities as the Central Government may, from time to time, require.

Notes on Clauses—This section seeks to provide for furnishing of return or information to the Central Government by the Commission with respect to its activities.

35. Power of Central Government to make rules

(1) The Central Government may, by notification, make rules to carry out the provisions of this Act.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

- (a) terms and conditions of service of the Chairperson and Members of the Commission and their salaries and allowances under section 6;
- (b) the procedure to be followed by the Commission in the transaction of its business at a meeting under sub-section (4) of section 10;
